

Not just a presentation — a purpose: Prabhu Premi Trust.

What Does “PPT” Mean to Us?

To the world, PPT might stand for PowerPoint Presentation, or even Perfect Person, Perfect Place, Perfect Time...

But for us, it holds a far deeper, more sacred meaning:

PPT = Prabhu Premi Trust

Prabhu – The Divine

Premi – One who loves with devotion

Trust – A sacred responsibility to serve

Prabhu Premi Trust is not just a name — it’s our identity, our inspiration, and our pledge.

It symbolizes a life led by faith, compassion, and purposeful action. A community bound not by transaction, but by bhavana (pure intention) and seva (selfless service).

Every time you hear PPT, may it remind you of the power of love in service, the beauty of spiritual giving, and the joy of walking the path of Dharma together.

Our Philosophy: The Spirit of a Prabhu Premi

Only a true Prabhu Premi — one who loves the Divine with a pure heart — feels the inner call to give, to uplift, and to serve without expectation.

At Prabhu Premi Trust (PPT), we are more than just an organization. We are a spiritual gateway for good deeds — a one-stop destination for those who wish to turn gratitude into action.

When you give through PPT, your donation becomes more than just help — it becomes a path of transformation.

Our goal is not only to serve those in need, but to nurture the spirit of a Prabhu Premi within them too.

Because true giving doesn't just change lives — it awakens souls.

About Us

Prabhu Premi Trust (PPT) is a faith-inspired NGO rooted in Jain values, dedicated to bridging the gap between those who have been blessed with abundance and those in need of support.

With gratitude in our hearts and compassion as our guide, we believe that when you are fortunate enough to receive God's grace, the greatest act of devotion is to share it.

At PPT, your generosity becomes a lifeline — uplifting those who have less, and creating a cycle of kindness, dignity, and spiritual fulfillment.

Give with love. Serve with purpose. Grow with faith

Women-Led and Spiritually Guided

 15th August — Freedom in Every Form

In history, women like Jhansi ki Rani led battles for freedom with courage and conviction.

Today, in the realm of faith, women continue to rise — not just as participants, but as leaders.

Prabhu Premi Trust stands as a living example — founded by a revered Sadhvi and guided entirely by an all-women Board of Trustees.

We believe that when women lead with spiritual strength, compassion, and clarity, they ignite change that transforms entire communities.

In the normal world, women are taking over boardrooms and parliaments.

In the spiritual world, they are carrying the torch of Dharma with the same fearless resolve.

This Independence Day, we celebrate a different kind of freedom —

Freedom from fear.

Freedom from limits.

Freedom to lead, serve, and inspire.

Because when women lead in spirit, they lead for eternity. ✨

Arpita Shah

“Strength doesn’t always roar — sometimes, it quietly carries a family forward.”

Meet Mrs. Arpita Shah, a resilient force and a cherished member of our Board of Trustees.

From a very young age, Mrs. Arpita embraced responsibility with grace, stepping into the roles of both son and brother to support her family. A devoted daughter and a pillar of strength to her mother, her journey is a powerful example of courage, sacrifice, and unwavering love. Today, she brings that same strength and empathy to our mission, embodying the values that lie at the heart of our organization.

Rhea Polycarp

“You don’t have to be born into it to belong.”

Sometimes, all it takes is a compassionate heart.” We are honored to introduce Ms. Rhea Polycarp, a valued member of our Board of Trustees.

With unwavering empathy and a deep commitment to the principles of non-violence, compassion, and service, Ms. Rhea embodies the spirit of our Jain NGO. Though not born into the Jain faith, her dedication to its core values speaks volumes. Her inclusive vision and selfless service inspire those around her, reminding us that true belonging comes from shared purpose and heartfelt action.

“When passion meets purpose at a young age, it paves the way for greatness.”

Introducing Dr. Sakshi Desai, the dynamic and driven member of our Board of Trustees.

A shining example of youthful determination, Dr. Sakshi dedicated her teenage years to a singular dream — becoming a dentist. With hard work, discipline, and an unshakable focus, she has turned that dream into a thriving reality. Today, as a successful dental professional and compassionate changemaker, she brings fresh energy, sharp intellect, and a deep sense of service to our board.

Mrs. Rajul Virvadiya

“In a world that often overlooks quiet strength, the role of a homemaker stands tall as the foundation of every thriving family.”

We proudly present Mrs. Rajul Virvadia the heart and soul of her home, and a respected member of our Board of Trustees.

She is Home Maker n Fashion designer

Being a housewife is no easy task — it’s a full-time role that demands resilience, emotional intelligence, and unwavering dedication. Mrs. Rajul Virvadia has embraced this responsibility with grace and strength, nurturing not only her family but also the values we uphold as an organization. Her grounded wisdom, compassionate spirit, and lived experience make her an invaluable part of our journey.

Our Pillars of Service

At Prabhu Premi Trust, our efforts are dedicated to seven core sectors – each reflecting our commitment to compassionate service inspired by Jain values:

1 Vaiyavachh (Selfless Service to Saints and the Sangh)

Assisting Jain monks, sadhus, and spiritual communities with their daily needs, supporting their path of renunciation with humility and devotion.

2 Vihar Dham (Supporting Jain Monk Travels)

Facilitating safe and respectful travel arrangements for Jain monks and sadhvis, ensuring their spiritual journeys are comfortable and aligned with tradition.

3 Education (Shiksha Seva)

Empowering underprivileged children through scholarships, school supplies, and education support programs – building brighter futures.

4 Medical (Arogya Seva)

Providing free medical camps, urgent healthcare support, and essential medicines to those who need it most.

5 Sarva Sadharan (General Welfare)

A flexible fund used thoughtfully and transparently to address urgent, genuine needs beyond our primary focus areas — wherever the call for help arises.

6 Jeevdaya (Compassion for All Living Beings)

Promoting ahimsa by supporting initiatives like animal rescue, feeding stray beings, and aiding goshalas (cow shelters) — protecting and serving life in all forms.

7 Anukampadaan (Support for the Spiritually and Financially Distressed)

Extending emotional and financial relief to those in deep suffering, such as families in crisis or silent warriors in need of compassion, dignity, and care.

Digital Transparency, Sacred Accountability

At Prabhu Premi Trust, we are embracing digitalization to ensure complete transparency and accountability in every donation and transaction.

All contributions are processed through secure digital platforms, allowing for clear tracking and documentation. This not only minimizes errors and manual handling but also reinforces our commitment to ethical, honest, and responsible giving.

Your support deserves clarity — and we're dedicated to earning your trust with every rupee donated.

How Your Donation is Allocated

When you donate to Prabhu Premi Trust, you have the option to choose which area you'd like to support:

- Vaiyavachh
- Vihar Dham
- Education
- Medical
- Jeevdaya (Compassion towards all living beings)
- Anukampadaan (Support for the spiritually and financially distressed)

If no specific area is selected, your generous contribution will be directed to Sarva Sadharan (General Welfare) — ensuring your donation is used where it's genuinely needed most.
